Alpha News Do you have questions and difficulty understanding some concepts and beliefs of the Christian faith, or know someone who does? Great News! Alpha is returning to Hillside! We 150 will be hosting the Alpha course, a practical introduction to the Christian Faith, complete with a full meal, a video featuring Nicky Gumbel and small group discussion beginning next Sunday evening, September 24th. (More details on the blue insert.) We would love to see you out to take part in this great course either in learning more about Christ, inviting others to do so or helping to host this spectacular course. The first session, "Christianity: Boring, Untrue and Irrelevant" will be shown to allow you or your guests the opportunity to decide if this experience is one you are looking for. Contact Pastor Andy for further information (857-0832 ext. 104 or andrew@hillsidemoncton.org). In order that Alpha run smoothly and provides a relaxed welcoming environment for the guests, we need volunteers. If you could assist, whether once or several times, with any of the opportunities listed on the Welcome Tab would you please sign up?
